

Employment Record & Rebuttal of False Allegations – Mr. Syed Danish

This document has been prepared to present a factual, chronological, and evidence-backed account of the employment of Mr. Syed Danish with the Company, his roles and responsibilities, performance and conduct, the circumstances of his separation, and a formal rebuttal to the false allegations raised by him through legal notice.

1. Appointment & Terms of Engagement

- Mr. Syed Danish was appointed on 20th March 2025 as Finance Manager – I, under a duly signed Appointment Letter (Annexure A).
- The Appointment Letter clearly set out the following binding terms and conditions:
 - I. All dues are to be settled within 60–90 days from the last working day.
 - II. Provident Fund deductions were applied from Mr. Danish's salary in accordance with the Company's policy from his very first month of employment. He was fully aware of this arrangement, as it was clearly stipulated in the Appointment Letter, and at no point during his tenure did he raise any objection or question regarding these deductions.
 - III. Immediate and unconditional return of all company-issued assets upon separation.
 - IV. Strict compliance with fiduciary duties, financial discipline, and confidentiality.
- Mr. Danish formally accepted these terms in writing.

2. Assigned Roles & Fiduciary Responsibilities

The Company entrusted Mr. Danish with highly sensitive financial and operational responsibilities, including:

- Processing accounts payable/receivable, payroll execution, tax deposits, and bank reconciliations.
- Monitoring cash flows, maintaining accounting records, and preparing financial statements.
- Liaising with auditors, banks, and vendors on behalf of the eSpark Consulting Group and eSpark Talent.
- Ensuring statutory compliance in all financial matters.

By virtue of these duties, Mr. Danish held a fiduciary position of trust, with direct access to the Company's financial resources and confidential data.

3. Performance & Conduct Issues

During his tenure, several material concerns were noted regarding Mr. Danish's performance and conduct:

- Unjustified Hiring of an Intern: Despite no operational requirement for a finance intern, Mr. Danish insisted on hiring one, disregarding management's input. This decision resulted in unnecessary overhead and misallocation of resources.
- Failure in Intern Supervision: After forcefully initiating the hiring, he failed to provide proper guidance and management to the intern, causing disruptions in workflow and lowering overall productivity.
- Negligence in Duties: He displayed repeated lapses in compliance with accounting protocols and reporting timelines, raising concerns about reliability and discipline.

4. Asset Retention

- Mr. Danish failed to return the company-issued mobile phone (valued at PKR 40,000) despite repeated reminders.
- As a concession, he was granted an extension of one week to return the device; however, he did not comply.
- This conduct reflects willful disregard for company property and constitutes a clear violation of exit and clearance procedures.
- Evidence: Asset issuance and clearance records, along with follow-up communication, are attached as Annexure B.

5. Financial Misconduct

- Mr. Danish executed an unauthorized transfer of PKR 197,000 from company funds to his personal account without any board approval or authorization.
- This act constitutes misappropriation of funds, breach of fiduciary duty, and financial fraud.
- Such misconduct is not only a breach of his employment contract but also an offense under applicable corporate and criminal laws.

6. Unauthorized Payment to Ex-Employee

- Mr. Danish wrongfully authorized and executed a financial transfer to a former employee, despite the fact that the said ex-employee had explicitly acknowledged in writing that the amount did not belong to him.
- Rather than halting the transaction, Mr. Danish persuaded and pressured the ex-employee to accept the funds, thereby causing a direct financial loss to the Company.
- This conduct reflects gross negligence, willful misuse of authority, and collusion, all of which are serious violations of trust and corporate governance.

7. Separation & Exit Formalities

- On 13th August 2025, Mr. Danish himself acknowledged via email (subject: "Closing Operations for Time Being") the Company's financial position and mutually agreed separation.
- Evidence: Email screenshot is attached as Annexure C.
- His last working day was 15th August 2025.
- An Experience Letter was duly issued Annexure D.
- As per policy, all dues were scheduled for settlement within 60–90 days, with August dues pending clearance, subject to asset return.
- The Company specifically asked Mr. Danish, through WhatsApp communication, if he wished to serve his contractual notice period. He did not respond to this communication, and the evidence is available.
- Evidence: WhatsApp conversation screenshots are attached as Annexure E.
- The separation was therefore mutually agreed, not unilateral or illegal, and is duly supported by written records.

8. False Allegations & Company's Rebuttal

Mr. Syed Danish served the Company with a legal notice (Annexure F) containing several false and misleading allegations. The Company categorically rejects these claims and places on record the following rebuttals:

Allegation 1 – Illegal Termination

- False and misleading. Separation was mutually consented to in writing.

Allegation 2 – Salary Withholding

- Baseless. Salary dues are in process as per company policy (60–90 days). No immediate demand was made by Mr. Danish at separation.

Allegation 3 – Provident Fund

- Factually incorrect. From the very first day of employment, Mr. Danish was fully aware that the Company does not provide an employer-side PF contribution. Throughout his tenure, he never raised any concern or objection regarding this, clearly reflecting his acknowledgment and acceptance of the policy.

Allegation 4 – Asset Clearance & Taxes

- Misleading. Clearance of recoverable taxes is contingent on the return of company assets. To date, the company-issued mobile phone has not been returned.

Omission – Financial Misappropriation

- The legal notice conveniently omits reference to Mr. Danish's unauthorized transfer of PKR 197,000 into his personal account, which is a fraudulent act and subject to criminal liability.

9. Defamatory Conduct Post-Separation

- Since the past week, Mr. Danish has been deliberately posting defamatory comments on the eSpark Consulting Group and eSpark Talent's official LinkedIn page, targeting its credibility and attempting to malign its corporate reputation. These repeated actions are not isolated incidents but form a clear pattern of misconduct with malicious intent.
- Furthermore, Mr. Danish has gone beyond comments and published a dedicated LinkedIn post designed to discredit eSpark Consulting Group and eSpark Talent. The content of this post was misleading, factually incorrect, and damaging to the Company's goodwill in the professional community.

- Such behavior reflects a breach of professional ethics and demonstrates Mr. Danish's intent to harm the Company's image rather than resolve matters lawfully.
- Evidence in the form of screenshots of comments and posts has been attached in Annexure G, clearly establishing his misconduct and defamatory intent.
- These acts fall under reputational harm, defamation, and misuse of digital platforms, making him liable under applicable defamation, cybercrime, and corporate reputation protection laws. The Company reserves its right to initiate legal proceedings for damages caused by this willful misconduct.

10. Misguidance of Employees Post-Termination

- After his termination/release from the Company, Mr. Danish deliberately attempted to mislead and influence existing employees against the Company's management.
- Evidence confirms that he initiated direct communication with employees and even scheduled meetings for this purpose, spreading false narratives, misleading claims, and baseless allegations intended to damage the trust between the employees and the Company.
- Such actions go beyond mere unprofessional behavior; they reflect a calculated effort to disrupt organizational harmony, weaken employee morale, and create divisions within the workforce.
- This conduct constitutes a serious breach of professional ethics and demonstrates malicious intent to harm the Company even after separation.

11. Deletion of Company Data

- After his termination, Mr. Danish deliberately deleted crucial company data, including invoices, official documents, tax-related sheets, Salary sheets, and other important business records that were vital for financial and operational continuity.
- This act has not only caused significant disruption in the Company's internal processes but also created serious challenges in record-keeping, auditing, and client deliverables.
- By erasing such critical information, he engaged in willful sabotage of the Company's operations and violated the basic principles of professional responsibility.

12. Manipulation and Creation of Internal Conflicts

- During his employment, Mr. Danish consistently attempted to manipulate the Company's Directors and C-Suite members by complaining to one another and spreading misleading narratives.
- His actions were aimed at creating division, mistrust, and internal conflict within the senior management team, thereby disrupting the harmony and unity essential for effective decision-making.
- Such behavior reflects a clear breach of loyalty and good faith expected from a senior employee and demonstrates his deliberate intent to destabilize the Company's leadership structure.

13. Company's Position & Rights Reserved

The Company categorically rejects all allegations as false, misleading, and maliciously intended to harass the organization. On the contrary, Mr. Danish's conduct, including:

- Unauthorized appropriation of company funds,
- Breach of fiduciary trust,
- Failure to return company property,

constitutes a serious violation of his contractual and legal obligations.

Accordingly, the Company:

- Reserves the right to initiate civil and criminal proceedings for recovery of misappropriated funds, damages, and asset recovery.
- Will pursue all remedies available under law in the event of continued false claims or defamation.
- Remains open to amicable resolution, subject to immediate return of company property and rectification of outstanding obligations by Mr. Danish.

Dear Mr. Huzaifa,

When I joined eSpark, I had envisioned spending at least three years here, which is why I left my second job and declined two other offers while working here. However, now it feels as if I am standing in the middle of nowhere. I am also aware that almost everyone will be returning in the coming days, except me but that is beside the point. I truly respect your decision.

I have already left all the Teams and WhatsApp groups, as I preferred to exit myself rather than be removed. I am currently using the company's mobile, which I will return on my last working day, Friday, 15 August 2025.

My only request is to kindly arrange for the clearance of my dues on or before Friday, 15 August 2025, so that I do not have to follow up in the future for payment. Please also ask HR to prepare and hand over my experience letter.

Outstanding Dues:

P.F 27,125
July Salary 120,000
August Salary 60,000 (15 Days)
Net Total = 207,125

Let's part ways on good terms and I sincerely wish you & eSpark success in future.

Best Regards,

Syed Danish

Legal Notice for Non-Payment of Dues, Illegal Termination, Provident Fund & Tax Non-Compliance

Dear Management,

My client, Syed Danish Sohail, was employed at eSpark Consulting Group from 20th March 2025 until 15th August 2025, after which he was abruptly and unlawfully released from service without compliance with the applicable provisions of the Labour Laws of Pakistan. This notice is being issued to demand settlement of my client's legal dues and to notify you of the violations committed by your organization.

1. Illegal Termination Without Notice / Salary in Lieu

Employer is required to provide at least one month's written notice or one month's salary in lieu thereof before terminating a confirmed employee.

He was confirmed after three months of probation, yet he was terminated without any notice or compensation. This constitutes an unlawful act.

2. Provident Fund Contribution

Employer and employee are required to contribute towards the Provident Fund.

You only refunded his deducted portion, failing to deposit your contribution. This is a clear violation.

3. Tax Deduction Without Deposit

Despite deducting tax from his salary, you failed to deposit the same, thereby engaging in an unlawful act which may amount to tax fraud.

4. Pending Salary

As of his termination, 15 days' salary of August 2025 also remains unpaid, which must be settled immediately.

Demand:

In light of the above, we hereby demand that you clear the following dues within 3 (three) days of receipt of this notice:

- One (01) month's salary in lieu of notice period (PKR 120,000)
- Employer's contribution to his Provident Fund for the duration of his employment (PKR 27,125)
- Confirmation that deducted income tax has been deposited with FBR (e.g CPR No.), or refund of the deducted amount (PKR 17,000)

- Payment of my client's 15 days' salary of August 2025 (PKR 60,000).

Net Total (PKR 224,125)

Failure to comply within the stipulated time will leave us with no option but to initiate legal proceedings before the competent Labour Court, Social Security/Provident Fund Authority, and also lodge a formal complaint with FBR regarding tax malpractice, at your sole risk, cost, and responsibility.

In my 15 years of professional experience, I have never encountered a workplace like eSpark Consulting Group and eSpark Talent.

- 1, Salaries were consistently delayed by one to two months.
- 2, A complete lack of professionalism, operating more like a sethiya system.
- 3, Constant internal conflicts between the partners.
- 4, Income tax was deducted from salaries but never deposited with the FBR.
- 5, Employees provident fund contributions were deducted, but the employer's share was never deposited.
- 6, Upon resignation, final settlement and clearance were denied under the excuse of "no funds available."

Such practices exploit employees and create unnecessary hardship. I strongly advise professionals in the industry.
